

EARTH'S INSIDES REVIEW

Activity 1 – Four Square

Directions:

1. Provide the essential information for two concepts.
2. When you have completed to boxes below and you feel like you have a good understanding of these concepts, you must write a question about each topic that you might find on a quiz or test.
3. Use this paper to teach two people near you about your concepts.

Description	Picture
Composition Layers
Example	Possible Quiz Questions

Description	Picture
Stress Layers
Example	Possible Quiz Question

Activity 2 – Earth's Crust Video – Bill Nye

1. How do we know what is under the Earth's crust?
2. Although the Earth's crust is thin, it's still thick enough to sustain _____.
- 3.. How do we know the Earth's core is solid?
4. The shell of an egg is the like _____ of the Earth. The white is like the _____ and the yolk is like the _____.
5. Will Mt. ST. Helens erupt again?
6. What is like a volcano but has boiling water and steam instead of lava?
7. The Earth's crust is made of _____ plates.
8. What means "whole earth"?
9. What monitors the movement of Earth's plates?